

FIRE TEAM CRITICISED

TO BE EXAMINED BY A VET.

The Strength of the Hose and Bell Tower Questioned—Street Railway Under Consideration.

The city council met last evening, present the mayor and Aldermen May, Clark, Fraser, Griesbach and Plead.

Mr. Wallbridge on behalf of several owners of property on Clark street addressed the council re damages on account of the C. N. R. cutting off ingress and egress by occupying the street. City Solicitor Beck submitted a written opinion confirming his views at last meeting that the city had no liability in the matter. It was decided to lay the matter before the Railway Commission, and the secretary was instructed to write the commission asking them to hold a sitting here and to hear several cases.

The commissioners were given power to dispose of a triangular piece of land in Block 2, R.L. 12, part of several lots bought to permit of Jasper avenue extension.

Mr. George Hutton waited on the council to ask permission to build an addition to the Hutton stable. Mr. Hutton was informed that a permit would be granted him upon his application being made.

The fire brigade applied for the balance of their annual grant. Motion of Aldermen Plead and Clark the grant was made.

A communication was read from City Solicitor Beck as to mining rights on lots in the city. This mining right on river lot 4 was owned by Donald Ross; that on river lot 6 by the Alberta College, that of river lot 8 by Mrs. Anne McLaughlin; that of river lot 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 874, 875, 876, 877, 878, 879, 880, 881, 882, 883, 884, 885, 886, 887, 888, 889, 890, 891, 892, 893, 894, 895, 896, 897, 898, 899, 900, 901, 902, 903, 904, 905, 906, 907, 908, 909, 910, 911, 912, 913, 914, 915, 916, 917, 918, 919, 920, 921, 922, 923, 924, 925, 926, 927, 928, 929, 930, 931, 932, 933, 934, 935, 936, 937, 938, 939, 940, 941, 942, 943, 944, 945, 946, 947, 948, 949, 950, 951, 952, 953, 954, 955, 956, 957, 958, 959, 960, 961, 962, 963, 964, 965, 966, 967, 968, 969, 970, 971, 972, 973, 974, 975, 976, 977, 978, 979, 980, 981, 982, 983, 984, 985, 986, 987, 988, 989, 990, 991, 992, 993, 994, 995, 996, 997, 998, 999, 1000.

An account was received from Dr. W. McDonald, druggist, amounting to $41.30 which was for medicine furnished on the order of Dr. Ferris, and not through the medical health officer. The medicine was for J. O'Donnell's family when ill with diphtheria last winter. On motion of Aldermen Clark and May it was unanimously decided to notify Dr. W. McDonald that the city was not liable for this account.

A report of the Commissioners was read stating that the tender of John Inglis & Sons for a pumping engine at $12,000 has been accepted. Engineer McLaughlin's report on an engine similar in design to the one previously reported as conditionally accepted not being satisfactory for the city's purpose was read. The report was adopted.

The commissioners reported favorably on the grading of Fourteenth street from McKay to Athabasca avenues. A petition was granted for the extension of a sewer on Eighth street 250 feet north from Victoria avenue.

The plumbing bylaw came up, but on motion of Clark and Plead was laid on the table until the engineer prepared a sample plan.

A bylaw was passed for the licensing of itinerant photographers, a fee of $15 per week being charged for the photographer who comes to the city to take photos. For the man who sets up business in a tent and is not a resident or ratepayer in the city the fee was placed at $10 per month. The bylaw was given its third reading and finally passed.

A bylaw was passed changing the water rate as per the schedule reported by the commissioners at the last meeting. This is designed to give the C.N.R. water at 6c per 1000 cubic feet.

Alderman Clark mentioned the matter of traction engines and thought that a man should proceed the engine with a red flag when passing through the city to warn drivers of horses that it was coming. On motion of Aldermen Clark and Griesbach the city solicitor was instructed to provide for this precaution.

On motion of Aldermen Plead and May the city solicitor was instructed to prepare a bylaw regulating the speed of vehicles on the streets including bicycles and automobiles.

It was moved by Alderman Clark and seconded by Alderman May that inasmuch as the chair of ex-Alderman McLeod has been deceasedவர்.

LIBERAL LEADER SHOT

STORMY CUBAN POLITICS

Battle in a Hotel Between Rival Parties Results in Six Fatalities.

Havana Sept. 22.—Dispatches received from Cienfuegos announced the killing of Congressman Enrique Vil-luendas, leader of the Liberal party, and the most able orator in the lower house, and also the chief of police of Cienfuegos during a conflict between the two political parties, Liberals and Moderates. Government advisers say that the police had information that in the hotel in which Villuendas resided, a quantity of arms had been deposited, and they went to investigate. As the police ascended the stairs they were met by a party of Liberals who fired on them, killing the chief of police. The police returned the fire killing Villuendas and others. Six persons were killed and twenty-five wounded.

Fire Team Criticised

cant, that Thos. M. Grindley be appointed to fill the position on the aldermanic board, as he was next in the vote at the last election. Alderman Griesbach proposed the name of John L. Mills for the vacancy. Alderman Plead was opposed to filling the vacancy at all as he was opposed to the method of filling vacancies.

Ald. Clark said he was opposed to the method, but the city was working under the charter and had to carry out the obligations it imposed.

Alderman May said that the charter could not be amended before the next election for alderman, so that the vacancy should be filled.

The mayor thought the vacancy should be filled.

The motion was changed to a notice of motion to fill the vacancy at next meeting.

Alderman May inquired from the engineer as to the manner of construction of the bell and hose tower. The engineer said it was 70 feet high, 7 feet in diameter and the walls were six inches thick.

Alderman May said he considered the walls too light and he was opposed to the erection of a tower upon this plan unless we could get some better evidence that it would stand. Aldermen Griesbach and Clark thought it a dangerous kind of structure. The matter was referred to the Commissioners.

Alderman May asked if the commissioners had a veterinary to inspect the fire team recently purchased, and if not why not? He said the horses were not fit for the purpose. One of them has straggled and was a disgrace to the city. Alderman Clark said if he were buying horses he would certainly get a veterinary's opinion upon them and the city also should. It was moved by Alderman May and seconded by Alderman Clark that in future when horses were purchased by the city they should be examined by a veterinary and a certificate be obtained as to the soundness of the animal.—Carried.

It was moved by Alderman Clark and seconded by Alderman Plead that this team be inspected by a veterinary and a report be presented at the next meeting.—Carried.

On motion of Aldermen Clark and May the following accounts were ordered to be paid when properly certified to:

Alderman Griesbach asked the engineer how many horses could be used at one time when the new pumping outfit was installed. The engineer stated that six horses could be used. The council then resolved itself into committee of the whole to receive and discuss the solicitor's opinion regarding the street railway matter.

STRATHCONA FALL FAIR

GOOD EXHIBIT OF VEGETABLES AND GRAINS.

Part of the Exhibit Sent to New Westminster—Result of Horse Races.

The Strathcona exhibition was fortunate in having fine weather, but was rather unfortunate as the time of year is one of the busiest that could have been selected. Most of the grain is being either stacked or threshed just now and the weather is such as to entice the farmer to stay with his oat and wheat fields. Notwithstanding this the exhibits in some departments were excellent. This was particularly true in the case of vegetables. Probably nowhere in Canada could be found a better show of vegetables than that of the Strathcona fair. The best of this exhibit was sent to New Westminster on Friday morning and even then there was a good show of vegetables left.

The exhibit of grains and grasses was also very good. The live stock exhibit was small, but some very good animals were shown. Mr. Tough's Herefords made a good showing. Mr. R. Fisher won the prize for herd of Durham cattle, and W. F. Cameron came first in the Jerseys. A complete prize list will be published as soon as it can be obtained.

The fine arts and ladies' departments were well filled with good exhibits, the competition being keen in every class as was also the case in the school children's competition in writing and map drawing.

The preserved fruit, bread, buns, dainties, etc., was enough to tempt the appetites of the visitors to the fair. The results of yesterday's races were as follows: Named race, 2 in 3, 1-2 mile heats—Tooby, Prince, Little Fred. Time, 1:22. 3-8 mile run, 2 in 3—Buntz Hen, 1; Cluster 2; Shooting 3, 3. Free for all; 3 in 5, mile heats—Sinner B, 2, 2, 1, 1, 1; Ray Nelson 1, 1, 2, 2; Miss Elizabeth 3, 3, 3, 3, 3. Time 2:36 1-2, 2:26, 2:26 1-4, 2:28 1-2, 2:29.

GREAT POSSIBILITIES

Ottawa, Sept. 22.—Dr. Saunders, after making the trip through the North West and Manitoba, wires from Brandon that the crops are immense and the possibility of wheat growing in Canada great. In a comparative-ly few years Canada would be able to supply the home demand, to furnish Britain with all its wheat and flour and have a surplus for export to other countries.

HOW THE CONSERVATIVES COUNT THE INDEPENDENTS

Mr. W. L. Walsh, K.C., of Calgary, Conservative organizer for Alberta, recently made a trip through the districts about Edmonton sizing up the chances of the coming fight. The results of his investigations are thus elucidated in the Calgary Herald under daring headlines:

NORTHERN CONSERVATIVES SHOW GREAT ACTIVITY.

Provincial Rights Party Strongly Supported in the Camp of the Enemy.

W. L. Walsh, K.C., president of the Alberta Conservative association, has just returned from a trip over the north line in the interest of his party, and gives the most encouraging report as to the outlook of provincial rights.

He visited every constituency between Red Deer and Edmonton, including both of these and found in every instance great enthusiasm among the friends of the cause. He attended the Leduc convention, which he describes as one of the most enthusiastic at which he has ever been present, and says that the feeling there is one of the utmost confidence in the ability of the Conservative candidate, Mr. Simonds, to win the constituency.

At Strathcona and Edmonton he found the Conservatives determined to put up a strong fight against the premier and his attorney-general.

In Sturgeon, Victoria and Vermilion, strong men are in the field in opposition to the Liberal candidates, with every eye pointing to victory there for the cause of provincial rights.

In the distant constituencies of Peace River and Athabasca, the holding of conventions is an impossibility, but in each place a Conservative candidate will run.

In Ponoka the Conservatives nominate their candidate on Monday next, and arrangements have been made for conventions at an early date in Lacombe, Wetaskiwin and Stony Plain.

The generally accepted idea in these parts has heretofore been that North of Red Deer the cause of Conservatism was hopeless, an idea based largely upon the results of the voting at the last Dominion election. Mr. Walsh describes this as an utterly erroneous idea, and says that the Conservatives are absolutely sure of carrying several seats north of Red Deer, with good fighting chances in several others.

This, with the more than excellent chances of the party in the south, made the prospects of Liberal rule in Alberta of exceedingly short duration.

The notable point in the story is that the Conservative organizer and the Conservative press count the "independent" candidates in the various constituencies among the opponents of the Liberal Government and the friends of the Conservatives.

When some months since these "independents" were chosen by alleged non-party conventions the Bulletin took the opportunity to point out that an aggressive Conservative worker.

The prospects of these candidates are now painted in rosy hues by the Conservative press and the candidates themselves are numbered by the Conservative official organizer among those whose election would assist in the defeat of the Provincial Government.

For this authoritative corroboration of the Bulletin's claim that the Conservatives of Alberta were endeavoring to win victories in doubtful constituencies by flying the colors of a false independence, all due acknowledgment is made.

The pronouncement of Mr. Walsh and the Herald clears the air and the Liberals of Alberta will understand that whatever representations may be made by so-called "independent" candidates, the presence of those candidates in the field is in accordance with the general policy of the Conservative party and that their candidature is being furthered by the organization and press of that party as a deliberately calculated means of accomplishing the defeat of the Provincial Government.

THE SCHOOL ISSUE

By J. A. CALDER, Late Deputy Minister of Education N.W.T.

THE POLITICAL ISSUE

Quite recently both the Liberals and Conservative parties in Alberta and Saskatchewan, met and organized for the Provincial election, which must be held during the next six months. At each of the conventions held a platform was laid down which embodied the principles and policies of these parties in their respective provinces. In each of the four platforms will be found a plank relating to common school or primary education. If these are examined closely there should be no difficulty in ascertaining what the real issue is between the two parties on the school question—Provided, of course, each of the parties has given an honest expression of its views and intentions.

In order that the reader may judge for himself the attitude of the two parties as indicated by the resolutions passed, the "school plank" in each platform is here set forth.

The Saskatchewan Liberal party resolved: "That in the opinion of this Convention, it is the duty of the Government of the province and particularly at this stage of its development it devote its energies and attention to the maintenance and up-building of an efficient system of common schools at the least possible expense to the pioneer settler, and to extend the advantage of this system as rapidly as conditions will permit, to the children of all classes of the population in every part of the province; that all schools should receive liberal financial assistance from the public revenues; and that every school receiving such assistance and supported by taxation should be subjected to the direct and continued supervision, regulation and control of the Provincial Department of Education."

The Saskatchewan Conservative party resolved: "That the province should provide at the smallest possible cost to the individual, an opportunity for every child in the country to obtain a sound primary education in schools controlled and regulated by the Government."

It is also resolved: "That this convention is of the opinion that the Legislature at its first session should, by an appeal to the highest court of the Empire, put to the test the constitutionality of those provisions of the act which restricts the freedom of the provincial authorities in respect to legislation and the expenditure of provincial funds in regard to education." (Note.—Only those portions of the resolutions passed which refer to primary education are quoted.)

The Alberta Liberal party resolved: "That this convention hereby declares its belief that the government of a new province should maintain an efficient system of common schools in order to meet the wants of the settler, and to extend to the children of all classes of the population an equal opportunity to obtain a good primary education; that this system should receive liberal financial assistance from the public revenues; and that all schools receiving such assistance and supported by taxation should be subject in every particular to the direct and continual supervision, regulation and control of the provincial department of education."

The Alberta Conservative party resolved: "This convention protests against those provisions of the act creating the province of Alberta which seek to limit the control of the province over the subject of Education, and thereby forever preclude the possibility of establishing a national system of common schools, and it characterizes the same as a flagrant and unwarranted interference with and usurpation of the rights of the province under the constitution. This convention declares for such action as will result in the earliest possible reference of the provisions to the Judicial Committee of the Imperial Privy Council with a view to procuring from the court of last resort in the British Empire a decision as to which, either they are or are not constitutional and within the power of the Dominion Parliament to enact."

Such are the policies of the respective parties. With their planks before him every citizen of the two new provinces should ask himself—What do they stand for? What is the chief point at issue? Surely there can be only one reply to these questions. The Liberal party in each province stands for peace and progress; the Conservative party in each province for stagnation and strife. The Liberals believe that the Government should devote its energies and attention to the maintenance and up-building of an efficient system of schools and to the rapid extension of the advantages of this system to all the children of the province; The Conservatives believe that the Government should devote its energies and attention to a vexatious and costly law suit, the inevitable consequences of which would be to divide the province into two hostile camps. The Liberals say they believe we have an excellent system of schools; they believe

The selection of tobacco takes time and great care—the conditions of its growth, the soil, the planting, and the cultivation, must all be considered.

I have studied tobacco from the seed to the cigar. I have a thorough knowledge of the qualities grown on the different plantations in the Manicragua district of Cuba, where the best tobaccos are produced. It is from the best of these plantations that I buy the filler of my

I was the first manufacturer in Canada to use Manicragua tobacco. It proved such a winner that the tobacco agents in New York sell thousands of bales of tobacco under that name that was never within one hundred miles of the district.

I visit these plantations every season, and personally select the tobacco I buy. The growers there call me a tobacco crank because I am so careful and particular in the selection of my tobacco. I would rather be thought a crank than jeopardize the quality of my Pharaoh cigar.

RAILWAY DAMAGES.

Editor Bulletin.—At last night's meeting of the city council, that while elephant, (railway damages) again made his appearance, and in an unusually short space of time made its exit, without granting much satisfaction to those most concerned. The great trouble seemed to be to find out just who is responsible for the damage done to a number of our citizens, by admitting a railway through the heart of our city, without safeguarding the rights of the individual. It would seem to be a simple matter indeed for the council to produce the original agreement with the railway and thus place the responsibility in the proper place and satisfy those who have been materially damaged thereby. The council seems to be very reluctant indeed in digging up this matter and placing before the eyes of the public, why we cannot tell, unless it be that they are members of the present council who took part in that transaction. The action of the council last night would indicate that there are clouds on the horizon, which had better for them not be swept away. All we ask from the council is that they produce the agreement made between them and the railway, and settle the matter up on that basis, and if the rights of some of the citizens have been sacrificed, to make proper adjustment of same upon a common sense basis and thereby avert costly litigation, which is sure to follow such unwarranted procedure as above railway deal. Yours truly,

M. GOWDA.

STRATHCONA FIRE.

Fire broke out yesterday afternoon about two o'clock in the east end mattress factory of Ross & Weber, Strathcona. The factory is situated in the old American hotel building on the main street. A tremendous volume of dense black smoke issued from the building.

Most of the firemen were at the exhibition grounds, the fire brigade band having just marched to the grounds a few minutes before, which delayed the arrival of the fire fighting apparatus. The chemical engine arrived first and was getting the fire under control when the hose reel arrived. The flames were then extinguished.

The stock was badly damaged and the loss on this is about $1500. The damage to the building will amount to about $500.

The School Issue.

The great majority of the people are satisfied with it, and they wish to see it continued, extended and improved; the Conservatives do not say that they recognize the present system as being satisfactory, they do not say that this system should be continued, nor do they in their platform advocate the improvement and extension of this system. So far as existing educational conditions are concerned, the Liberals stand for a policy of "activity"; the Conservatives for a policy of "inactivity." The one party pleads for peace and harmony; the other shouts for discontent and strife. With the flaming torch of bigotry and race prejudice in its hand Conservatism threatens to set the heather on fire; with the floating banner of "Good will to all men" at its head, Liberalism seeks to promote the educational welfare of the people.

Now let us view the matter from another standpoint. The Liberals state EXACTLY what they think should be done. They believe the present system is a good one; they stand boldly out for maintaining it; they affirm their conviction that it can be improved and that the energies of the people and Government should be exerted in that direction. On the other hand, the Conservatives are silent practically every one of these points. They ask the people of the provinces to endorse a policy of agitation—more than that they ask them to join in the agitation. And for what purpose? Let every citizen ask himself this question. The school planks in the platform of the Conservative party in Alberta and Saskatchewan do not reveal the purpose, or at least the REAL purpose. Conservative candidates on the stump will not announce what the purpose is. Nevertheless the object of the Conservative leaders, the Conservative press, and the Conservative party is plainly visible.

What is it? What does the Conservative party, as a party seek to do? What does it hope to gain? Surely we need not look far afield to find an answer to these questions. During the next few months we will hear a great deal about "unwarranted interference," "provincial rights," "secession," and "the constitution," but when all the loud talk and fiery speeches are carefully sifted and the chaff all blown away, it will be found that the Conservative party has but one idea, one set purpose, namely to use this school question as an issue for Federal Tory party purposes. The Conservative leaders at Ottawa hoped, and still hope, to embarrass the Government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and they have pressed into service the Conservative leaders in the Territories. They have argued that if by any means it is possible to get this school question back to Dominion politics, if they can make it an issue in the next Federal elections, there will be some hope of their defeating the present Liberal Government. To do this they know they must capture one of the new provinces and should they do so they will rest content that the necessary steps will be taken, the necessary legislation passed to create the conditions required to carry a test case to the courts and eventually to the Privy Council. Can any reasonable man question what the effect of such action will be? The people of Canada know too well what was done in the case of Manitoba to get this question into the courts. They know also that for years after it got there there was continuous strife and agitation. They know that brother was set against brother, neighbor against neighbor, and church against church. They know that the Confederation was shaken to its very foundation and that had it not been for the wise policy of Sir Wilfrid Laurier the union of the provinces might have been dissolved. Do the people of Alberta and Saskatchewan wish to see a repetition of those days? Or do they wish to see the Government of these provinces devoting all their time to the many important practical matters of administration which are essential to the prosperity of the people and the development of the country?

But the Conservative party may disclaim any intention of disturbing the present school system. If such is the case should not its leaders say so openly and honestly? They cannot take both roads. They should not be allowed to sit on the fence. They either favor the continuation of the existing school system or they do not. It is their duty to announce their policy as a party, as was done boldly and candidly by the Conservative association at Edmonton not long ago when it passed a resolution advocating the immediate abolition of separate schools. If the Conservative leaders are not in favor of disturbing existing conditions, if they believe our present school system is satisfactory, why do they not say so? And why should they, at this juncture in our history insist on agitating in favor of ascertaining forthwith whether the provinces have the constitutional right to do something which even Mr. Haultain has said he would not do? When the people of this country are asked to favor a nice quiet little appeal to the courts for the mere purpose of determining a constitutional point that may or may not have any practical bearing, should they not seriously enquire why they should do so? Then, again, why all this haste? What immediate harm is being done? If the provinces are entitled to certain rights and certain powers which have been withheld from them they are not going to lose these rights and powers if the least case is taken to the courts twenty years from now.

The School Issue.

or a hundred years from now. In the case of Manitoba it will be remembered that it was given its constitution in 1870, and it was not until 1892, twenty-two years afterwards that the Privy Council decided that the powers of the Manitoba Legislature were in regard to education.

The last clause in the resolution adopted by the Liberals in each province sets forth the belief in the principle of full departmental control and supervision over all classes of schools. This is exactly what we have and this they believe should be maintained and continued. Under our present school law we have not in any sense exclusively controlled separate schools such as they had at one time in Manitoba. The conditions which existed there do not exist here, and never can without the sanction and approval of the legislatures and people of this country. The Liberal party, therefore, in the last clause of its school plank declares in favor of the Government through the Department of Education having and retaining full control over the licensing and examination of teachers, the selection of text books, the adoption of courses of study, the inspection of teachers and other kindred matters.

The following statements made by the leaders of the two parties in Saskatchewan are here given as an indication of the avowed policies of the parties.

The Winnipeg Telegram of June 12 reports Mr. Haultain as having given utterance to the following words in London on the previous Tuesday:

"Let there be no misunderstanding on this subject. Don't give any credit to men who cry 'peace, peace,' for there is no peace, and there will never be peace so long as there is one world of coercion, so long as there is one slightest violation of educational rights in the legislation that is given the provinces. We are resolved to fight the matter to the end. And we will exhaust every constitutional and legitimate purpose. Whatever the result of the fight may be we are resolved to fight it."

A "fighting" speech usually sounds well and takes well. But in this particular instance the good people of London decided by a large majority that Mr. Haultain had no reasonable grounds for a scrap. After listening to all the arguments that could be advanced by both himself and Mr. Bennett they came to the conclusion that no actual grievance existed, that the Dominion Government had taken the only course and the wisest course open to it, and that the Western champion wished to fight merely for the sake of fighting.

After the London and North Oxford elections, Mr. Haultain said to a reporter of the Toronto News:

"The people of the East must not think that the fight will be over when the autonomy bills have passed. It will only just be beginning and will probably be fought in such a way that the struggle will not be confined to the Northwest Territories."

What is the only fair inference to be drawn from such a statement? Speaking for the pit and for the party he represents what does Mr. Haultain wish to do? Does he wish to confine his harmless test case to the people of the new provinces? Or does he hope that he will probably be able to convulse the whole of Canada in another struggle based on race and religious prejudices and sentiments?

On the following day, Mr. Haultain said to a reporter of the Toronto Mail:

"I said when the question was introduced that no change would be made in the existing system of the provinces if they were given their rights in that direction. The result might be different now for ultra Protestants might clamor for reform."

Mr. Haultain was evidently in a sulky mood. He had just spent a week or ten days in trying to defeat the government in London and North Oxford. He had hoped to embarrass the government by the election of Conservatives. But in this he was sadly disappointed, and for the purpose of getting even with some one, he immediately changes his front.

Why does he say the result might be different now? What had the by-elections to do with the wishes of even the Ultra Protestants in the Territories? Is it not likely that he means to use the words "Ultra Protestants" instead of "Ultra Tories"? And why at this particular time should he as much as intimate that if he were dictator in either of the new provinces he might find it necessary to discontinue the existing system in order to meet a clamor for reform?

Now contrast these statements made by Mr. Haultain with the following statement made by Mr. Scott when he accepted the leadership of the Liberal party at the convention held on August 16:

"Let me say one word or two in regard to the issue. Party lines are not the issue. All are not concerned in that and even Mr. Haultain's past actions are of minor importance. But all are concerned as regards the class of government we are to have in this country. Our first concern is as to the policy to be followed with regard to education, public works, railways and so forth. For so forth. We want a wise and vigorous policy towards these ends. But no good results can be expected unless these lines if the country is in the throes of sectarian disturbance. What must be ensured above all else are conditions that will permit the prosecution of a progressive and practical policy. Every man knows how helpless governments are when the population is agitated by sentimental questions involving matters of religion or race."

"All danger from these agitations is not past, however, as was shown during recent months. What did Parliament do in 1905? Although it passed for seven months it practically passed only two bills. The point is this, that if we are going to have any enterprise or progress, we are to have government that will give results to the people, let us take care that we do not endanger the work of the government by the up-raising again one of these sectarian questions."

The issue before the people of Saskatchewan will be whether we are to have a government with a motto of Peace and Progress, or one with test cases, threatening the peace, raising disturbances, and paralyzing all governmental activity. I make the promise that so far as lies in my power, if the people of Saskatchewan support the policy we shall present to them, good government, clean government, and so far as I have the energy and ability for it progressive government shall be given the people of this province."
